This internship program includes day-to-day responsibilities within each of the above disciplines, as well as cross-functional department exposure and interaction with senior management. This program encourages interns to bring new and creative ideas to the table.

Skills:

- Individual with a passion for learning, who shares LWP's core values, including positivity and kindness
- A team-player that is a hand-raiser and operates with a positive "can do" attitude for all assigned tasks, no matter how big or small
- Good communication, verbal and analytical skills
- Ability to take initiative, ownership, and accountability
- Ability to problem-solve, be forward-thinking, and anticipate needs
- Strong attention to detail as well as organizational and time management skills
- Ability to work cross-functionally and collaboratively in a fast-paced, multitasking environment
- Ability to take direction and turn top-level strategies into actionable plans
- Ability to think both strategically and creatively

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the day to day operations of a business
- Develop strong communication and organizational skills
- Gain an understanding of the importance of deadlines and time management

Qualifications:

- Currently studying in a marketing or business related field
- Recently graduated from college with a marketing or related business degree
- Must be available 4-5 days a week beginning in Summer 2022
