

Social Media Intern for Non-Profit, Best Day of My Life so Far

About us:

The Best Day of My Life is a non-profit organization, based in Philadelphia with sites in diverse cities. It is our mission to provide a cure for social isolation by empowering older adults to share life stories and inspire human connection across generational and social divides.

The position:

The Social Media Volunteer opportunity is a remote opportunity that will foster interpersonal connection between older adults and younger generations through our social media channels.

Responsibilities

- Coaching by Social Media Graduates, with support from Best Day's founder and board members
- Post to Best Day's Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter two days a week
- Create content for our social media channels through Canva or other creative applications
- Ability to work independently and in a group
- Reliable and dedicated team members whose values are aligned with Best Day's mission
